

Krycia Bower is a self-taught artist and a teacher working in various media – woodblock printing, acrylic, oil and watercolour painting, building twig furniture, and ceramics. She graduated from McMaster University with a degree in French and Russian, then taught for 30 years in all grades from kindergarten to college level in various subjects – French, English, Art, Science, History, Special Education, Accounting, Word Processing, Secretarial, Business, Marketing, English as a Second Language. Born in Germany of Polish parents, she came to Canada as a child, learning English when she first went to school and then French when the family moved to Nova Scotia. Grateful to have arrived in Canada, Krycia has served on the Board of Directors of the Arts Council of Muskoka since March 2006.

April 2009